THE ORDER SONS OF ITALY IN AMERICA ®

2011 ITALIAN FESTIVAL DIRECTORY

This directory lists 358 Italian festivals held in 36 states and the District of Columbia this year. The directory supplies each festival's name, month, city, state and contact information.

The directory was compiled by the Order Sons of Italy in America (OSIA), with the assistance of Paul Porcelli.

The custom of honoring favorite saints with outdoor ceremonies was brought to America more than 100 years ago by the early Italian immigrants. The festivals vary in size and character. Some consist of only the saint's statue, a band and a procession while others are colossal celebrations that last several days and include symphonic bands, entertainers, food stands, rides and fireworks. A familiar sight at most festivals is the saint's statue covered with money or jewelry, later donated to the local church or saint's society.

The oldest festival is believed to be the Feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel in Hammonton, NJ, which this year celebrates its 136th anniversary in July. The biggest festival is the Feast of San Gennaro held every September in New York City, which attracts about one million people. Large festivals can also be found in West Virginia (Wheeling's Upper Ohio Valley Italian Heritage Festival in July and Clarksburg's Italian Heritage Festival in September) and in Wisconsin (Milwaukee's Festa Italiana in July), among others.

According to Sons of Italy research, the five states with the most festivals are: New York (62); New Jersey (55); California (39); Pennsylvania (36); and Illinois (28). Other states with significant numbers of festivals include Massachusetts (21), Ohio (20), Connecticut (16) and Florida (14).

Italian festivals are held coast to coast. Some festivals include such traditional events as the flight of the angels (the Feast of the Madonna del Soccorso di Sciacca in Boston in August); the greased pole contest (the Feast of St. Peter in Gloucester, MA in June); and the Dance of the Lily (Festa del Giglio), in which about 100 men carry a five-ton platform through the streets for hours (in Brooklyn, East Harlem and Massapequa in June and July).

To add your festival to next year's directory, please contact the OSIA headquarters in Washington, DC by mail, fax, or e-mail. [No telephone calls, please]. Send the name of the festival, month held, city, state and a contact person or organization with a telephone number and/or email address. Deadline: December 31, 2011.

Established in 1905, OSIA has more than 600,000 members and supporters and a network of more than 650 chapters coast to coast. It is the largest and oldest national organization for people of Italian descent in the country.

OSIA works at the community, national and international level to promote the heritage and culture of an estimated 26 million Italian Americans, the nation's fifth largest ethnic group, according to the U.S. Census Bureau.

OSIA is deeply grateful to Paul Porcelli for his generosity in sharing his festival information with us. It is the result of many years of research, enormous effort and considerable expense on his part to fulfill his mission to capture these tradition-laden ceremonies on film and in print.
